

Calvary Baptist Church Newsletter, June 2018

I quote C.S. Lewis, "My prayer is that when I die, All of hell rejoices that I am out of the fight." Never thought if the world of evil rejoicing over my death, but it makes a lot of sense when you think about it. When a Christian is totally committed to bringing people to Christ as personal Lord and Savior, Satan is defeated each time a person accepts Christ. So it is logical that "Hell would rejoice" when an active Christian is out of the fight.

The BIG question is, Are you in the fight?" Most of us speak or come in contact with people who have a need to know Jesus Christ and we just keep silent. Knowing Jesus brings so much joy to our lives. Joy that so much of our world needs and wants. So, let's be telling our story to those who have no story of Jesus making a difference.

Vacation Bible School is coming soon. This is a wonderful opportunity to introduce your un-churched family, friends, co-workers, neighbors to Jesus Christ. Bring them out for a few nights with their children and let the lessons, crafts, recreation speak to them of God's love.

We have a lot happening at Calvary Baptist this year. Just take a look at a few of those things:

Pastor/Search Team is working to discover God's direction at to a new Pastor.

The church is working a moving from committees to a Team Ministry approach. Sign up where your gifts fits best.

A church Policy Team is working on policies that assist the church to function better.

Vacation Bible School and all the wonderful possibilities that can come from it.

Revival and Homecoming in August.

The Kitchen renovation project. The Hospitality Team is about half way in raising adequate funds to complete this project. There is a Designated Fund set up for this project. Contact Kathy Link should you have questions. Support it.

The Bunk Trailer is finally a reality. The trailer has been purchased. Someone needs to go pick it up and then we can start putting in the bunks, outlets, A/C and heat, etc. A Designated Fund has been set up to support this project. It will support Disaster Relief efforts by providing sleeping quarters for volunteers. Support it and help get it together. The trailer should be parked at the church by the time you read this article. Contact Steve Conner should you have questions on this project.

Snow Birds, it's great to have you back in the best place in all the world to live.

Welcome back to serve.

Blessings, Pastor Dan

YES, It is time for Youth Impact!!

Date: June 17-23

This year we have 5 youth going to the Chesterfield location and 1 going to both Chesterfield and Bluefield. This is a great opportunity for our youth. They not only get to know others, but they will make an impact on the community and one special family. In our case 6 different families. If you would like to support the group please let us know. We still need to buy gas to the trip and our van will be used to take youth to the worksite daily. If you have any questions please feel free to ask. Debbie Snellings

We will be focusing in the Route 1 corridor as part of a new initiative in an area of great need and great potential for development in the community. Campers will engage in construction mission projects in a concentrated area with other community engagement ministries and an end-of-week community meal/block party going on simultaneously. This week will also coincide with Kings Fest (optional). Housing will be either in a public or private school in that area.

KingsFest Option for Impact Chesterfield

Round out your week on mission with a few days at KingsFest, the Christian music festival hosted at Kings Dominion. The KingsFest add-on includes tickets to the festival and lodging during the event.

Impact Bluefield/Together for Hope

Date: June 24 - June 30

In partnership with Woman's Missionary Union of Virginia, Cooperative Baptist Fellowship of Virginia, and Bluefield College, Impact will be the construction mission component of Together for Hope. There will be ministries year-round, built around the strengths of the community, which campers will learn about during Impact. There will also be a family/multigenerational mission option with housing as family units offered at a reduced rate. Housing will be at Bluefield College.
